

Code of Conduct for serving at CHAT

This Code of Conduct is for serving at CHAT in any capacity. CHAT is a co-op and to operate effectively and economically, all families are required to work 2 out of 3 hours each CHAT day. Each family must agree that they both believe and live by the following code of conduct. We appreciate your willingness to serve at CHAT and be a part of the co-op.

- I agree and live by a traditional definition of Marriage, as described in Scripture. God's gift of marriage, which the Creator defines as the union of one man and one woman (Gen. 2:18-25)
- I also agree that I do not use illegal drugs or practice illegal activities.
- I agree to pass a criminal background check.

If I have any questions about my ability to serve the required 2 hours per week, I agree to seek the counsel of the director. Should it not be possible for me to serve either because of one of the above reasons or another reason not listed, I understand that my children will still be able to attend. I will also be able to attend my children's functions in a guest capacity.

However, should I not be able to serve, I will need a sponsor family for my children. This family would agree to be responsible for my children during CHAT, would be the "go to" family in case of emergency & would be required to stay with my children should I be delayed in their pick up. If my sponsor family is absent on a CHAT day, my children would need another CHAT family to be responsible for them that day.

In order to accommodate CHAT's needs, there will be a $100 per semester sponsor fee and that fee must be paid prior to your children attending CHAT. CHAT only works if all parents volunteer. Since some families may not be able to do so, CHAT will need the funds to hire teachers on an as needed basis.

I have read and understand the CHAT Code of Conduct for Service. I am willing to serve under the conditions listed above or will notify the director and make arrangements for a sponsor family prior to the beginning of CHAT.
